WE PRESENT . . .

Vapor Trails is not an ordinary yearbook, for it represents the combined efforts of the staffs of nine American high schools overseas. Scattered over three continents and in six countries, the students in these schools are nevertheless bound together by the common experience of going to school in a foreign land. The yearbook staff in each of the nine areas, which reach into Europe, Asia Minor and North Africa, emphasizes its own surroundings and background through its individual theme, pictures and art work in its own section.

We find many aspects of this life to be the same as pupils find them in the United States. The struggle with algebra, English and chemistry, the words Prom, basketball game, cheerleader and pep rally mean as much to us abroad as they do to those "back home".

There are differences, however, and one, of course, is our surroundings. Instead of an American background we have the sleepy English countryside, the green valleys of France and Germany, the burning deserts of Libya and Morocco, or the hills and mountains of Turkey.

We can explore palaces in England and castles in Germany and France; we can stand on the invasion grounds in North Africa or even where the Crusaders camped in Asia Minor long ago.

Life overseas has brought many changes to us, especially in our knowledge and in our understanding. Having ringside seats in watching political developments in the countries in which we are living, we can now better grasp the meaning of these nations' problems.

Attending concerts and parties, competing in sports events, working together in music programs, art exhibits and welfare projects with the young people of our host countries, we have learned new languages, new ways and new customs and have made lasting friendships. In our role as junior ambassadors we hope that we have left with our friends, the people who will guide the destiny of their country, an understanding and respect for us and our country.

So we present in pictures and words this record of our high school days — our 1958 Vapor Trails. May it serve as a treasure-chest of memories for each of us!

TO THE USAFE HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS OF 1958

It is a real pleasure to extend to each of you congratulations for having successfully completed this important phase of your formal education.

Edmund Burke once said that "Education is the cheap defense of nations". Certainly you are all aware that we are having to put forth enormous effort today for our national defense. That defense, for which we are paying so dearly not only in effort, but in dollars and manpower, has so far enabled us, in cooperation with our NATO allies, to sustain freedom for the past decade in the face of international tension of fluctuating intensity. This position of strength we must maintain for the foreseeable future and about that there can be no doubt. But scientific progress will unquestionably bring about dramatic changes in the composition of our strength and in our relationship with other nations of the Free Alliance, so that tomorrow's world — the world in which you will find yourselves bearing heavy responsibilities — will present challenges difficult to perceive even at this advanced stage of technological progress.

You who are graduates this year in the USAFE high schools have enjoyed a tremendous advantage over your contemporaries in the States: You have had a priceless opportunity to absorb the culture of these historic and colorful countries in which your parents have been stationed. And I hope the experience has made a vivid, indelible impression upon you. I hope, too, that you have observed that many of the problems of differing ethnic groups begin to dissolve as people meet, rub shoulders, compete on the athletic field and enjoy the same social functions.

It is with a broader understanding, then, that you can undertake the next phase of your educational development, preparatory to assuming your full responsibility as the leaders of tomorrow.

My best wishes to each of you.

F. F. EVEREST
General USAF
Commander-in-Chief

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE USAFE HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES OF 1958

The United States Air Forces in Europe, through the 7135th School Group, have provided you with a High School education which compares most favorably with the best standards in the United States. In addition, you have had the great educational advantages of living and traveling in foreign countries, learning the customs of various nationalities and mingling with the local people. You also have had the privilege of representing our great country as junior ambassadors of the United States. I am certain you have contributed much to the mutual understanding among people which is so essential in maintaining a peaceful world.

Your senior high school year has been marked by a major turning point in history with the space race into the space age. The accelerated pace of scientific advancements is almost beyond belief and presents many challenges to us as individuals and as a nation. America and American citizens have always met past challenges with determination and success. I am confident that all our USAFE graduates this year will meet the challenges of the future with the firm determination to maintain American leadership in a peaceful world. I wish you all the greatest success and happiness in your future endeavors.

CENTRAL HIGH

We are privileged to view Britain with a much closer eye than the average American tourist. We visit regal Windsor Castle and see history relived in Westminster Abbey. With awe we watch the Houses of Parliament in session, comparing our own Congress to its model. Then we join the Thames on its journey past the impressive Tower of London and London Bridge. Between Putney and Mortlake we see Cambridge and Oxford battle the river's current in exciting boat races. Further on, the river draws nearer to Hampton Court Palace, situated near our school.

It has now been six years since Central opened her doors to admit the first student. Amid the hammering and sawing of new construction, Central has done much to establish American high school traditions at Bushy Park.

On the serious side, Central became a member of the National Honor Society four years ago in recognition of its academic achievements.

Last year the Student Council established the Student Court for the promotion of self government at Central. This new addition is the prodigy of both the Student Body and the Student Council.

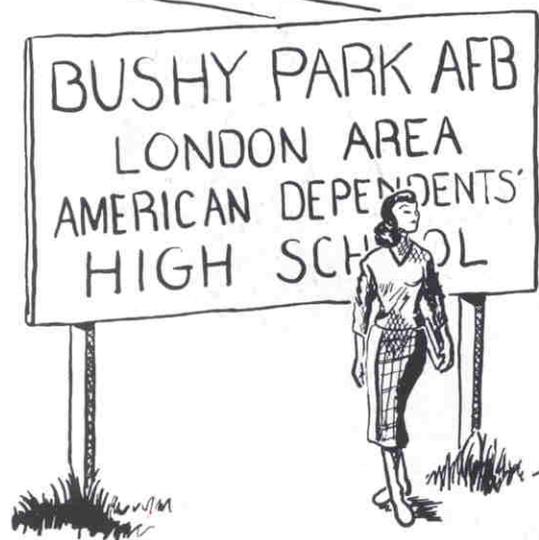

A new tradition, only two years old, is the Senior Class trip. Mixing enjoyment with education, the Seniors are looking forward to seeing Brussels and visiting with Belgium students.

On the lighter side, last year brought the introduction of Twirp Week sponsored by the Student Council.

This year the Senior Weekend became popular among class members. Central also organized the Pom Pom Girls to aid the cheerleaders in rallying school spirit.

The school has grown, too. We now occupy the entire building block and recently added another cafeteria. This year a pleasant sight greeted old Centralites — the installment of a locker room. What a relief it was not to have books to carry all day, especially for those scholarly students.

Now that this year is nearing the end, we hope that future Centralites will enjoy their years at Central as much as we have enjoyed this year and those past.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Senior Class of 1958 started the year by improving their Senior Circle, an outside meeting place for the class members. After last year's session as juniors they have enjoyed the prestige of the top class this year. Among these privileges were lunch-line cuts, a senior room, and exemptions from semester exams for seniors with a B average.

The seniors made great efforts to earn enough money for their trip to Brussels to visit the World's Fair. This trip was the highlight of the year. The main money-making projects were cake and candy sales. Then as a special highlight, the talents of the class members reached a peak with the Variety Show and the class play, "Blithe Spirit".

Class spirit has been high and many have enjoyed the various senior weekends, a new thing for Centralites. They've had parties, dances, and outings in London which were great fun.

Now they are looking forward to graduation, and they will always recall their last year at Central High with pleasant memories.

A new activity for the Senior Class this year is the Senior Weekend. This includes a dance on Friday, or a reasonable facsimile thereof, and a play or movie on Saturday. The dorm students spend the weekend with their town friends, or stay in the dorm. The entertainment committee, who work hard to make these weekends a success, have arranged for places for the dorm students to stay and provided entertainment and refreshments for the fall dances where everyone who attends is sure to have a wonderful time. These weekends will be continued, we hope, by the following senior classes.

The first Senior Weekend occurred just after our first term ended; so naturally the theme was based on report cards. As each person entered the dance, he was given a report card containing his nickname, home town, and grade, which would have shaken any faculty member. These masterpieces were dreamed up by the entertainment chairman, Paul Thomas. Then, Saturday, all the seniors participating in the weekend's activities went to the command performance of "Les Girls" in London.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The history of this year's Junior Class began last September because many of us spent our earlier high school years elsewhere. The 59'ers have had an ambitious and industrious spirit, taking advantage of every opportunity to be an active part of Central.

Early in the year we elected our officers. They were: Jane Milburn, president; Bob Ruffin, vice-president; Judy Senn, secretary; Richard Enroth, treasurer; and Doss Harsh, sergeant at arms. Richard left us in December and Mike Hall was elected to take his place. These officers have led us through our two main events of the year, the Junior Review and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Once our class was organized, the activities began. One of our class emerged victorious from the cheerleading tryouts, a well deserved reward for her practice. Meanwhile the boys played rugby and soccer well into the winter. Basketball time found the junior boys capturing most of the team positions.

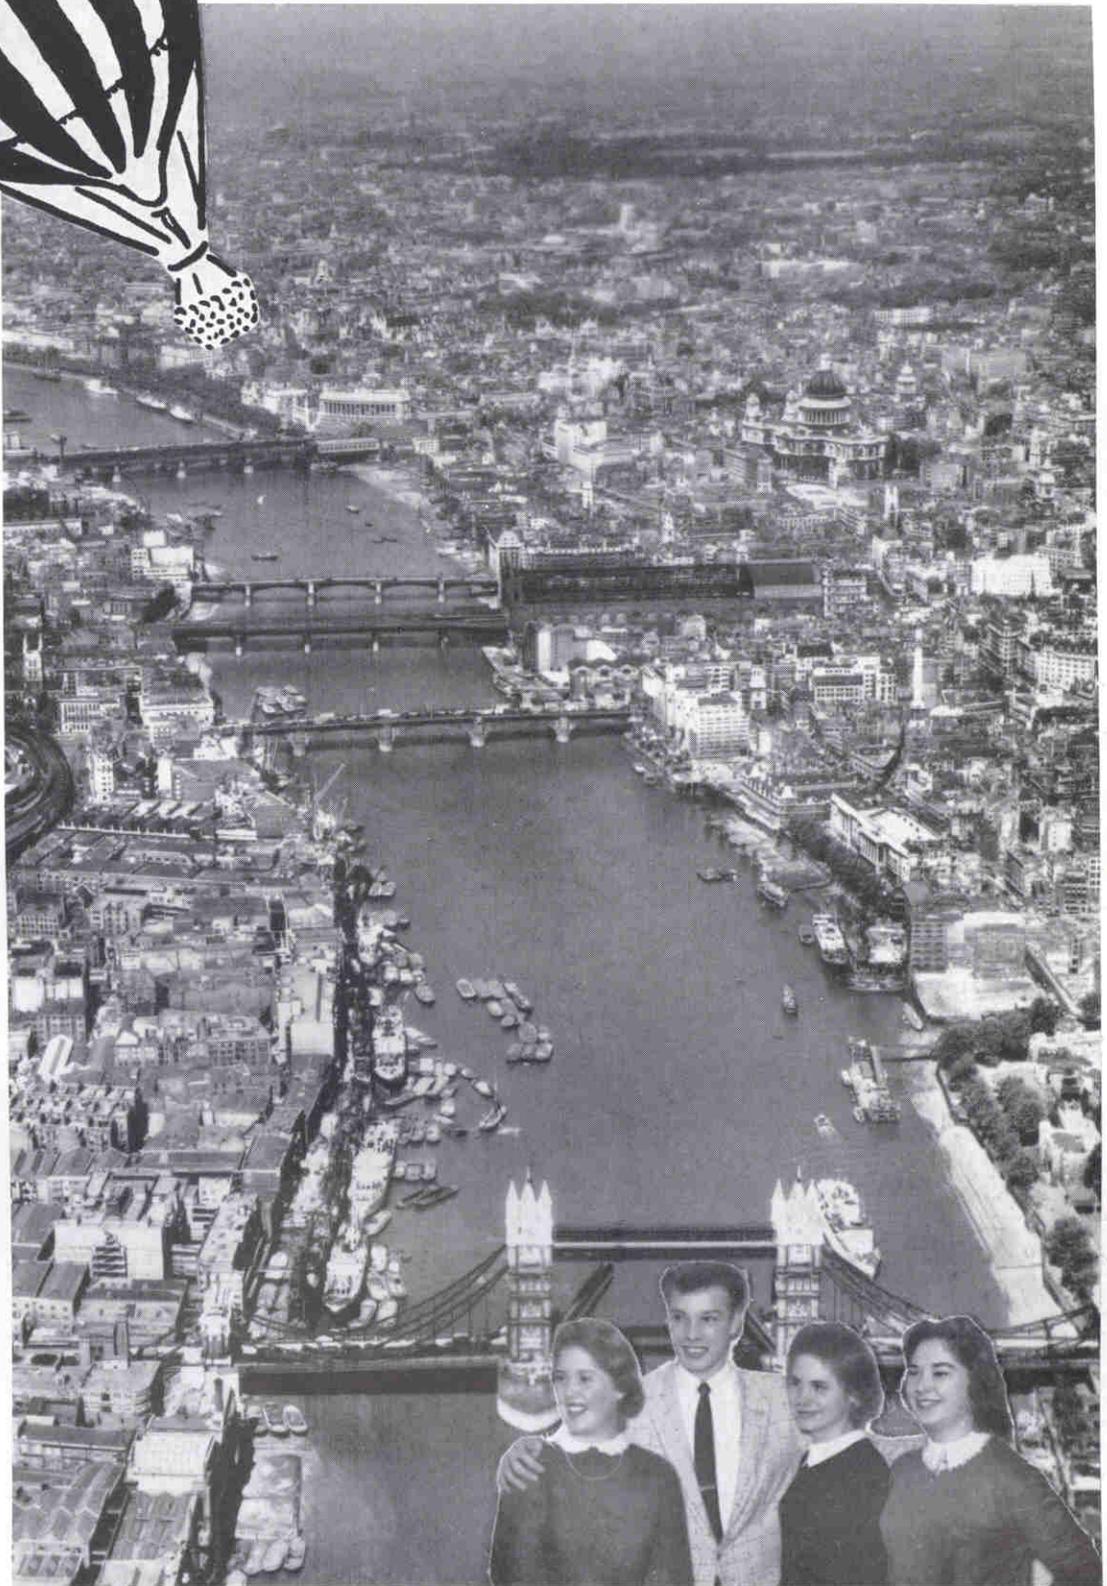

Our studies gained momentum all fall and were a sufficient challenge all year.

Next year, the climax of our high school life, we hope to improve Central as it has been improved each year and hold high the standards of our activities and studies.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The sophomores, the largest class this year, received an ample dosage of classroom work, but along with this there was still time for many to participate actively in school sports and other outside activities.

The sophomores, besides planning and carrying out class trips to some of the local places of interest, found time to present a play entitled "Father's Been to Mars."

Altogether it was a very prosperous year and we are looking forward to our remaining years in high school.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

The freshmen have been very active in all phases of school life this year. The class has been well-represented in clubs, sports, and activities. Several members of the class formed a freshmen soccer team and were often victorious. They worked to build up their finances by putting on a variety show. We feel sure that in the light of what they have achieved this year they will accomplish even more in their three remaining years of high school.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council represents the student body of Central High School. The Council consists of four officers nominated and elected by the student body. At the beginning of the year the big buzz circulating throughout the school was "who would be elected? 'Progressive or Ideal'?" After several weeks of campaigning everyone went to the "polls".

The election results were: Ernest David, president; Fred Milburn, vice-president; Kris Ludlow, secretary; Sandi Johnson, treasurer. Later, at class meetings representatives were selected to be members of the Council under the new officers.

The Student Council initiated many activities during the year, such as Twirp Week and the raffle, to raise money for the basketball team's trip to Germany.

This year the Council also became a member of the National Association of Student Councils, a nationwide organization in the States.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Members are chosen from junior and senior classes by a representative faculty body on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service to the school. The society's aim is to promote these qualities in the student body and keep up the same high standards within its own ranks.

Early in December a very impressive ceremony was held in the school library at which thirteen new members were initiated into the society. The ceremony was attended by many proud parents and several teachers. After the initiation a reception, arranged by Mrs. Simay, was held in the Home Economics room. We are all looking forward to the next initiation ceremony which will be held in the spring.

STUDENT COURT

The Student Court, a newly established function at Central, meets to judge minor misdemeanors in school. Established by popular demand, it is run entirely by student representatives and presided over by Fred Milburn, vice-president of the Student Council.

The Court works hand in hand with the Student Patrol and together they maintain order and issue decisions on minor felonies.

The Court consists of Oren Jones, Joe Basha, Fred Milburn, Jane Milburn, Bob Percy, and Chuck Hansen.

STUDENT PATROL

Our "Police Force" has extended its duties to patrolling the hall during classes. The Student Patrol, guided by Mr. Harris, has been very effective in chasing the stragglers from the locker room and keeping late-comers from line breaking. I. D. cards have been issued to patrol members entitling them to cut line and to be excused early from classes.

This year the Student Patrol is aided during class changes by guide lines which keep the students on their various sides and the congestion in the halls down to a minimum. No more tripping in the halls now!

"Our Protectors"

BAND AND CHORUS

Just before our Christmas holidays started, the Central High Chorus and Band under the direction of Mr. Robbins, the head of the Music Department presented the annual Christmas Concert. While the chorus sang Christmas carols, the band strayed from the usual program to play "Storm King March" and the "Deep River Rhapsody". The chorus sang a selection of enjoyable carols including several new introductions, "On This Good Christmas Morn" and "Behold That Star". The Harmonettes, Central's own song birds, sang their versions of "Winter Wonderland" and "Silent Night".

The concert ended in the group singing of "Silent Night" with the audience, chorus and band members joining to put everyone in the true Christmas spirit.

The band and chorus have worked together this year to make our assemblies more enjoyable.

AMERICAN WEEKEND

Some of Central's budding Faulkners and Hemingways have contributed "school life" articles to the well-known American Weekend. The articles which are written by alternating editors include sports, special events, and daily happenings at Central. These articles help to give teenagers in other countries a picture of an American teenager in England.

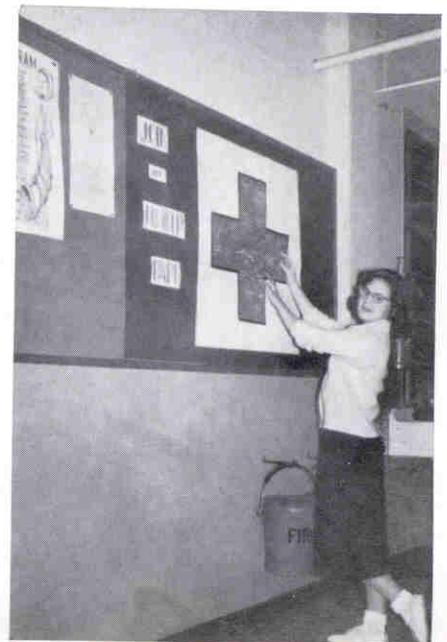

The members include Judy Szalai, Sue Sweeney, Judy Teusink, Stephen Eng, Kris Ludlow, Glenda Coleman, and Dan Frantz.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Our Junior Red Cross has been in full swing all year with Miss Williams as the sponsor and Pattie Fawbush as president. Early in October enrollment plans were started. An assembly was sponsored on October 31. This was a real "Kick Off", for they secured 100% enrollment.

Since then they have made gift baskets for South Ruislip Hospital. The Christmas project was highly successful, too. A large box of toys, Christmas stockings and individual gifts were sent to a British hospital for spastic children at Oxfordshire.

At Easter a party will be given to the Children's ward at South Ruislip. A plan to visit an orphanage around the London area is in the making. "Keep up the good work, Junior Red Cross workers, for we are all very proud of you."

ART CLUB

Christmas Mural

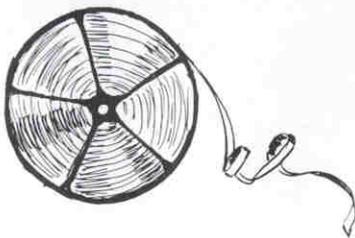

The Art Club, under the supervision of Mr. Abramowitz, gives not only the regular art students a chance to develop their talents, but also provides an opportunity for those students not able to take Art otherwise, to express themselves on paper. The choice of medium is left to the individual, and the results of this freedom of expression are often very rewarding.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

The Audio-Visual Club, sponsored by Mr. Billington, has been extremely busy this year showing films for various classes. They have also been compiling a film about school life and dorm activities. This documentary film will be shown to the student body at the end of the year in the Base theater.

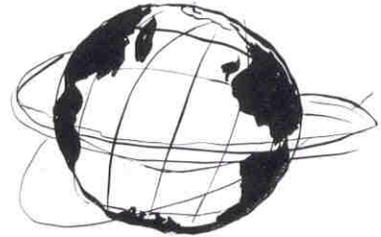

Mr. Billington and the boys.

ANGLO-AMERICAN CLUB

As the name implies, the Anglo-American Club, under the supervision of Miss Lathim, has as its major purpose the fostering of friendship between Americans and the British.

On January 29th, the members spent the day attending classes at the Thames Valley County Grammar School. An invitation has been given to the British students who served as host to make a similar visit to Central High.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club members, sponsored by Mr. Mitchell, have been busily developing their French culture and learning various French songs. They also spend much of their time reading and discussing French newspapers and listening to French music.

All the members are anxiously awaiting the expected trip to Paris this coming spring, and the president, Elaine Lewis is arranging a trip to a French movie.

All in all their main objective is the development of French interests and a broader understanding of the French language.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club, sponsored by Mrs. Bidleman, works to promote a wider interest in mathematics. Their present project is a construction, showing the expansion of the Binomial Theorem to the 4th power  $(a+b)^4$  built by Kenneth Hannsgen, sophomore. Their feature plan includes the study of the history of the number system and the development of mathematics, will be displayed pictorially.

STAMP CLUB

The members of the Stamp Club meet to trade, display and discuss their private stamp collections. The group is now planning a field trip to London where they'll visit many of the stamp stores.

The members "swap talk" on the best stamp stores, bargains and how to arrange the individual displays. Sponsored by Miss McFadden, the club works together and plans many ways to make this hobby enjoyable.

The president is Dennis Schurter, vice-president, Henry Langhaim; secretary, Robert Chartier; and treasurer Hugh Pell.

TABLE TENNIS

Mrs. Simay has conducted our table tennis club through an active schedule this year. Frank Le Gate, the President, presides over the meetings which are held at the Boys Dorm game room. For their main activity they have sponsored a series of three tournaments to determine the "troupe champion" and the runnerup from their thirty-two members.

After an active year the players have become skilled in their game and have learned to appreciate the value of sportsmanship.

"When can we start?"

MISS U.S.A.

There was one day that we didn't mind standing in the rain. That was the day Miss Charlotte Sheffield, Miss U.S.A. and Miss Utah 1957, paid a very unexpected visit to our student body. She gave a very interesting talk on how to prepare for the future, while our gallant knight, Tony Taylor, held an umbrella for our distinguished guest.

Miss Sheffield stated that her main ambition was to be a teacher; and she wants to teach in Dependent Schools overseas. Don't we agree that we could use another English and speech teacher?

"... and that's how it happened."

" 'Tis a far better thing I do ..."

DORM LIFE

"Now for a man to man talk..."

"Les Girls"

"There may be a chance of escape!"

"Ladies, I must have quiet."

As soon as Central's doors close there is a mad rush for the Snack Bar, the Dormitory students' favorite haunt, where the juke box dominates the scene. After dinner, dances are frequently held in both dorms.

Thames Hall (the Girl's Dorm) and Hampton Hall (the Boy's Dorm) offer a variety of activities. Among the highlights of dorm life are the night trips to movies or plays in London, ice shows, games, and Anglo-American activities.

The dorm councils, composed of students, play an important part in dorm life. They act as mediators between the students and the supervisors.

The Thames Hall Dormitory Council this year is headed by Althea Lawrence and consists of the Wing Chiefs from each wing. The Council discusses the problems which come up and helps the entertainment committee with their activities. Among the things that have been accomplished this year are the movies Wednesday night and a banking system.

Corresponding with the Girl's Council is Hampton Hall's House Council. The presiding officer of the Boy's Council is Fred Milburn. He is assisted by Julius Lloyd, deputy chairman and the secretary, Pete Holdiman.

Affiliated with the Council is the Court which judges all minor misdemeanors. The chief judge is Ernie David who is aided by the jury of wing representatives.

All in all everyone works to make the dormitory a home away from home.

BASKETBALL

Coach Cannon and his crew

The Killers are coming.

Yea, Team!

"Well, fellas, it's like this . . ."

The Central High Bobcats, coached by Grover C. Cannon, started the season with four straight losses before winning a hard-fought decision with the 7533rd Air Base Sq.

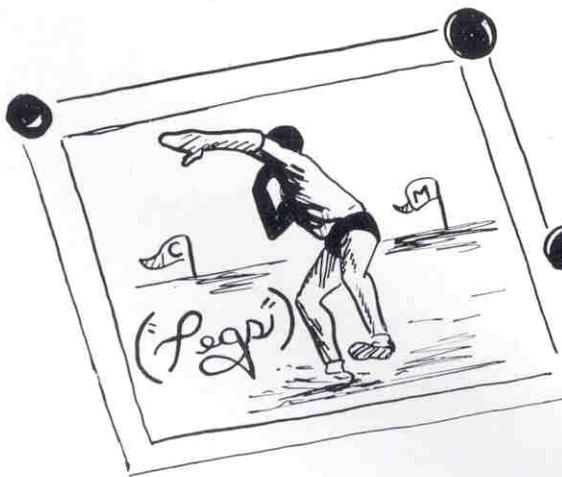

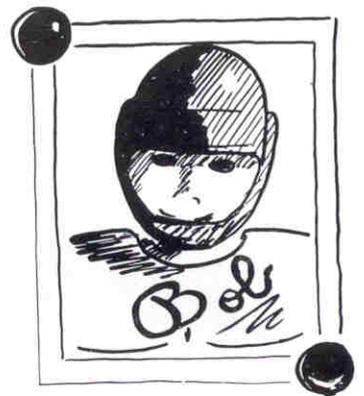

Even though the Bobcats were outclassed by experience and age of the tough Squadron teams, they proved themselves to be hard-working and high spirited.

Not being discouraged by their first four defeats, the Bobcats continued to work hard until they won their first game. Since then they have gained the confidence needed to spur them on to win even more games. This was best shown with their triumph over 3rd Air Force, 81-33. This all-time high is the first to ever have been achieved by any of the previous Central High Basketball teams.

The Bobcats finished fourth in the USAREUR CLASS A Basketball Tournament. The hard-fighting team defeated Nürnberg 55-34 and Munich 45-43 to enter the semifinals. Frankfurt spoiled the Bobcats' Championship hopes 64-46. They put up a hard fight against Heidelberg for third place but were defeated 42-32.

SPORTS

SOCCER

Central High is now in its fourth soccer year and the reputation of its team has grown as each year passed. With more than half the playing season behind us it is gratifying to report that the Varsity team, coached by Mr. Churchill, has lost only one game since school reopened this September. The B string has also had a good season to date, winning far more than it has lost. It should also be remembered that these fine records have been achieved against English schools playing their national winter sport.

Many underclassmen who are interested in soccer, but failed to make the Varsity or B string teams, have been coached by Mr. Slater. The real benefit will undoubtedly be seen next year when many of the presently established members have departed. Then the school will have a well trained reserve from which to choose next year's Varsity team.

RUGBY

Now in its second year at Central High School, the Rugby team even though it is sparked by new players, is a group filled with unlimited determination.

Their first game was with Tiffin School, Kingston, and after leading 6-0 at the interval, overconfidence on the part of the Centralites lost them a closely fought contest. The final score was 11-9. The second fixture saw Central High opposed to Surbiton County Grammar School. This game was contested on the Harlequins Ground, one of the most famous Rugby grounds in England. In keeping with such a strong atmosphere of Rugby honor and glory, the team played as though inspired. After a great battle with no quarter given, Central High fought their way to a 6-6 draw.

Regents Park in London was the setting for the next game against Kynaston School, St. Johns Wood. Expecting the game to be an overwhelming victory for them, the English school was greatly amazed to find that the superior speed of their opponent resulted in only a 6-3 win. Had the field been drier, it is quite possible this game could have been a victory for Central.

Amazed at how the American youth has picked up the most English of sports, the British opponents have given the Centralites high praise and great admiration. It is this that has so strongly helped the Anglo-American relationship wherever they have met a British team on the Rugby field.

CHEERLEADERS

 To be a cheerleader
 you must be energetic and have a megaphone

Handwritten note: Year Central!

Pep performance and school spirit have been the goal of our cheerleaders this year. With practice every day they have enlarged their stock of cheers considerably and have been successful in encouraging the students' school spirit.

The uniforms consist of blue pleated skirts and white sweaters with blue letters and a megaphone.

Our cheerleading squad consists of six peppy girls: Judy Garrison and Robyn Rudat co-captains; Karin Kurtz, Edwina Edwards, Lois Thomas, and Carolyn Congress (alternate).

POM POM GIRLS

This is the first time in Central's history that we have had Pom Pom Girls. Their purpose is to promote school spirit and lead the students in songs at our games and pep rallies. A group of five students was chosen by the faculty and student body.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Billington, the group has been successful in both aims. We hope they will keep up the good work in the years to come.

G. R. A.

The Girls Recreation Association, sponsored by Miss Williams, is designed to give the girls in school a chance to participate in sports such as swimming, horseback riding and bowling outside of gym class. At the end of the school year awards will be given to the girls who have spent at least 25 hours participating in these sports. The girls have all worked hard to earn their points and have had fun doing it.

PEP CLUB

Enthusiastically supporting our basketball team, the Pep Club has helped our cheerleaders and Pom Pom Girls introduce new yells and school songs.

The highlight of the year is the basketball tournament in Frankfurt, Germany. The Pep Club will accompany the team to cheer them on to a much hoped-for victory.

The girls also sold colorful blue and white pom poms to help finance the team's trip. Under Mrs. Billington's able direction, the girls have done a marvelous job encouraging school spirit.

AMERICAN TEEN AGE CLUB

"With the greatest of ease."

Barbara Bode, TAC President welcomes all at the Christmas Formal.

"Wham!"

"Quel surprise!"

The American Teenage Club of London provides a weekend haunt for many of the students living in the London area. Besides having a regular schedule of casual dances, bingo, movies every other Sunday, dinner and play outings, and several sports activities, it also staged a big "Back to School Dance" in the fall with all of C.H.S. attending. In December the Club presented its annual Christmas formal attended by many Centralites.

The TAC, now in its 12th year and recognized as one of Europe's peppiest American teenage clubs, still maintains its reputation as being highly organized, self-sufficient, and almost wholly run by the teenagers themselves. The seven tri-annually elected officers conduct weekly club meetings attended by many of the one hundred or more enrolled members.

"It's on the floor somewhere."

"Heel and toe..."

"Y' think it's easy?!"

"Fingers touch ever so lightly."

"You can't prove a thing."

HALLOWEEN DANCE

GOBBLER'S GRAB

Amid goblins, witches, ghosts and the like the dorm students danced to the music of Jack Schothchers band. It was a gay affair and the dormitory was bedecked with streamers, balloons and ghostly wall decorations.

Oren Jones, dressed as a typical English school-boy, led the grand procession, and the dormitory supervisors and the faculty members who had ventured out on this night of horrors judged the best costumes. Vicky Brigman won an LP record for her spectacular space woman outfit complete with four arms, proving the old saying "four arms are better than two". Ted Smith won in the boys category; he was dressed in an Arabian night outfit, complete with a miner's searchlight helmet.

Dancing and bobbing for apples were the main attractions but the fortune teller attracted a great deal of interest.

"What do you think?"

"Charleston, Charleston . . ."

"Be a clown . . ."

"Visiting Royalty"

"Marche Slav"

"No autographs — please!"

TWIRP DAY

On November 21, the annual TWIRP Day ("The Woman Is Requested To Pay") brought about many an odd scene; girls carrying boys' books and lunch trays, running various errands and polishing shoes. Gals and guys appeared in Dog Patch costumes and special assembly prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Pat Cooper and Allen Anderson, both dressed as little babies, Allen in diapers and Pat in a nightie outfit, including a frilly bonnet and a baby bottle around her neck.

Throughout the day we rubbed elbows with bums, little girls, hill billies, spacemen and old maids. Following the assembly, a dance was held in Rooms 61, 62 and the library.

"Sartorial Splendor"

"What am I bid?"

"The Royal Family"

"Is this my best side?"

"Half man, half twirp"

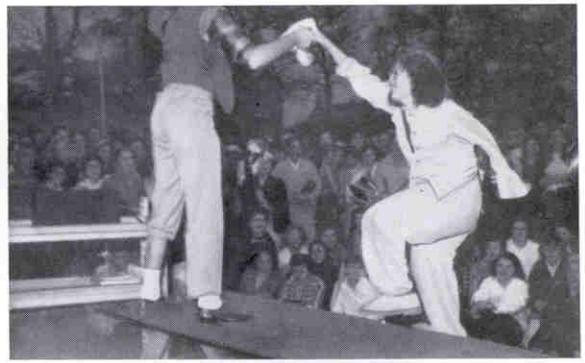

"Dancing is serious business!"

"She's my girl, see!"

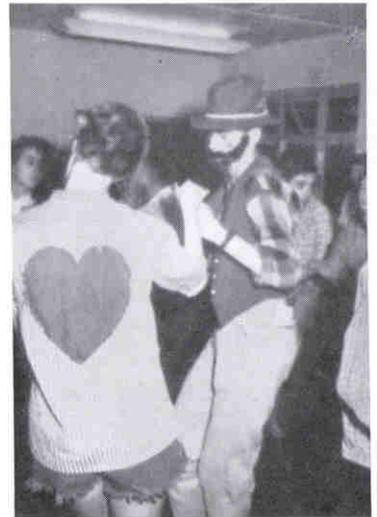

"My fair lady!"

"Charmed, we're sure."

"The Happy Wanderer"

"Heart of My Heart"

"Who's the babe?"

"Stompin' at the Savoy"

"Progressive Education"

"The line-up"

THANKSGIVING DANCE

Our Thanksgiving Dance was held at the Girls' Dorm this year. Carrying out the theme of the Harvest Hop, the walls were gaily decorated with pumpkins, horns of plenty, turkeys and pilgrims; the stage was set with haystacks and large gobblers, all adding to the festive atmosphere.

Jack Scottheher and his lively band set the pace for the evening's dancing. Full skirts and gay petticoats swished and swirled as the walls literally shook with rock 'n roll.

Dance contests and games were also on the program. Many lucky guests took home lovely prizes for their efforts. By the end of the evening everyone agreed that they had a wonderful time.

Hats off to the dorm's entertainment committee for a well planned and highly enjoyable evening.

"Young America"

"We drink Ovaltine"

"Wheeee!"

"Our next contestant . . ."

"Sweet nothing time"

"Last dance."

CHRISTMAS FORMAL

"Candy Cane Ball"

The Christmas Formal, one of the high spots and long awaited events of the year at Central, was warmly received. The theme was "The Candy Cane Ball" and the decorations on the walls and tables carried out this idea magnificently. A candy cane and dance program were placed at each plate.

Following dinner the boys voted for their choice for Queen and her court. The dancing commenced, to the music of Phil Gordon and his orchestra. Halfway through the evening the floor show began. First on the program were five male singers. They were followed by a talented young man who did imitations of all the top tunes.

One of the most exciting moments was when the M. C. announced the results of the voting. The Queen, truly beautiful in her white, floor length gown, was Barbara Bode, the president of the TAC; sharing her honor was Fred Gruin, King of the Evening. The court consisted of seven equally lovely girls: Jackie Bland, Donna Forsman, Jill Grable, Judy Hall, Judy Senn, Pat Smith, and Jane Milburn.

The dancing continued until twelve when the traditional "Good Night Sweetheart" was played. Everyone agreed that this year's Christmas Formal had been the biggest and best.

THE SENIOR VARIETY SHOW

"Round they go — do-si-do"

"HMMMMM!"

"You got me ----"

"Ticklish?"

One of the year's highlights was the Senior Variety show, directed by Dan Frantz, and displaying talent from the Senior Class. A group from the London T. A. C. presented both a square dance and a Russian Hopak, depicting a good deal of talent and hard work.

For the deep thinkers of Central there was a melodrama entitled "Hiss the Villain". Chuck Stewart doubled as M. C. and the villainous banker in the play. Paul Thomas, who was unfortunately cut by the water pistol which he used to kill the Good Captain (Dan Frantz), carried on heroically as the banker's clerk. The daughter and wife of the Captain were tearfully portrayed by Sue Biggers and Susan Sweeney respectively.

A refreshing interlude was provided by the guitar playing and singing of Paul Westin. Central's songbirds, "The Harmonettes", sang "White Christmas" and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes".

The show was a huge success and the proceeds will help to send the Senior Class to Brussels for the World's Fair.

"Down to earth again."

BLITHE SPIRIT by Noel Coward is centered around a fortune teller and her seances. The ghost of Charles Condomine's first wife proved to be quite troublesome and an annoyance to him and his second wife. But even worse were the ghosts of two wives haunting this one man.

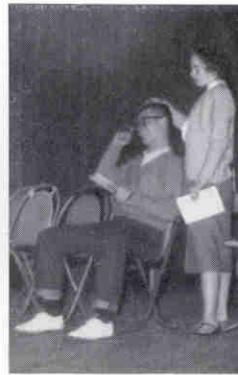

Rehearsals began early in January and have been held three times a week since then. The cast has worked hard and will continue to do so until the opening performance in March.

Afternoon performances will be held on March 31 and April 1st, for the students and an evening performance will be given on April 2nd for the parents.

We all wish the cast good luck and feel that the play will be a real success.

The play was chosen by a committee of Seniors, with Sandi Johnson as chairman. The committee spent several weeks reading numerous plays before they finally chose BLITHE SPIRIT by Noel Coward.

Tryouts were held in Mr. Law's English classes the week before Christmas vacation. Those wishing to try out for a part read several scenes in front of the class.
